

10 REASONS

Why You Need to Attend DBIA's
Design-Build Conference & Expo

Nov. 5-7 | Las Vegas, NV

1 FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE TEAM

30 sessions cover Progressive Design-Build, VDC, public sector trends, risk management and more. All are designed to elevate every member of a design-build team.

6

PRECONFERENCE POWER

Two reasons to arrive early on Nov. 4: The VDC Leadership Exchange (VDCLEx) or the Introduction to P3 for the Design-Builder course (additional fees apply).

EARN CONTINUING EDUCATION

Collect up to 14.5 Continuing Education Hours (CEHs) while learning from the best. DBIA is an approved AIA provider, making it easy to meet professional requirements.

7

HANDS-ON INNOVATION

Visit the Exhibit Hall and VDC & Technology Pavilion for live demos, new products and emerging solutions. See firsthand how technology is transforming project delivery.

3

EXCLUSIVE, CANDID FORUMS

Our Owners' and Practitioners' Forums are known for candid conversations among peers. Hear what's really happening on projects, share challenges and shape the future of design-build together.

8

NEXT GEN OF DESIGN-BUILDERS

Dedicated programming gives students and young professionals the tools and connections they need to launch and grow their design-build careers.

4

KEYNOTES THAT DELIVER

From Carey Lohrenz, the first female F-14 Tomcat pilot, to futurist Steve Brown, our keynote lineup is designed to inspire and equip you with strategies you can use on your next project.

9

CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

A night of glitz with purpose. Celebrate the projects, teams and individuals pushing design-build to new heights. Our annual Awards Celebration is where excellence takes the spotlight (additional fees apply).

5

AVOIDING PROJECT PITFALLS

Design-Build Done Right® has transformed project delivery nationwide, but what happens when it goes wrong? Our Design-Build Done Wrong General Session provides real-world case studies and lessons to help you spot red flags and keep projects on track.

SHARED ENERGY, DBIA STYLE

With a free night built into the schedule and planned events designed for connection and fun, you'll enjoy a memorable conference experience that fuels lasting connections and sparks collaboration across the industry.
